THE CASTELLAN

St. Mary's College of Maryland

1970

In the dynamic world we live in, change comes rapidly. Yesterday's dreams have become today's realities. Man has long dreamed of reaching the moon: In 1969, Man walked there. Change has come to ST. MARY'S too. Some changes have been subtle, others more obvious. There have been alterations of attitudes, ideals, goals. We, the members of the college community, are instrumental in causing change. Constant awareness of our responsibility is necessary: We should be neither too hasty nor too reticent in effecting change. The CASTELLAN has accepted the responsibility for recording change in ST. MARY'S. Some of the events of the year 1969-70 are preserved in this volume. Not all the events were recorded, for such a task is impossible. Perhaps this year will be remembered with smiles, perhaps with tears ... but it will be remembered.

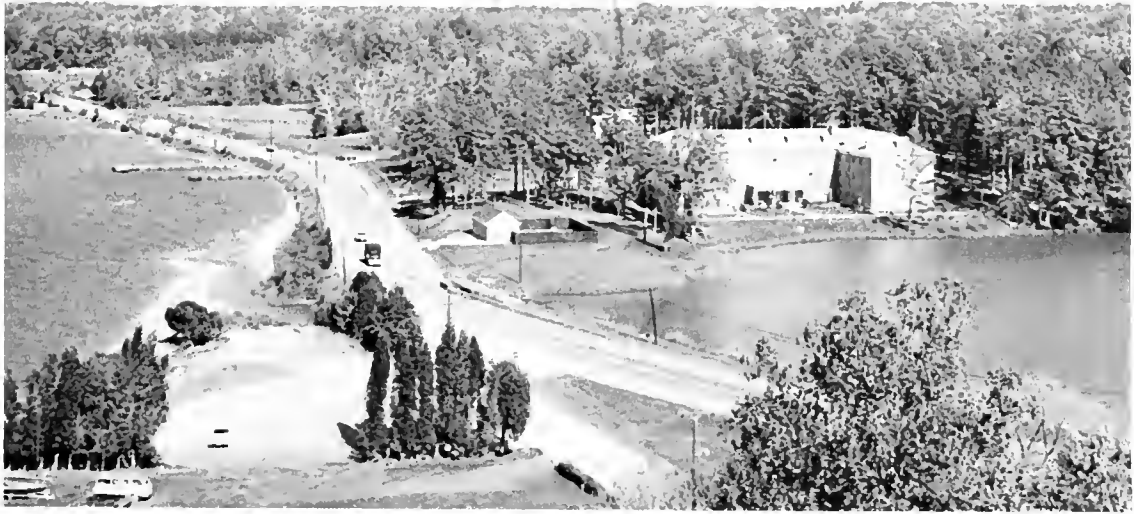

The Cotton Bowl??

Dottie McDonough writing home—perhaps?

William getting ready to serve at the Picnic.

Maureen Bowling and Beth Dugas at the College Picnic.

Planning another delicious(?) meal for the cafeteria.

Peggy O'Brien

Diane Blanchard eating that scrumptious cafeteria food.

Mr. Vukmer

Just groovin'.

Stu Margrey in St. John's Pond.

"Mom" serving her fans in the Snack Bar.

KEN!! All that beautiful hair!!

Charlie and Rich Kid relaxing in the Union—as usual!

One of our fearless nightwatchmen.

Aren't they cute?! John Quade, Craig Nesbitt, Bill Malone, Bill Snyder, Terry Snyder.

Rats scrubbing the Statue.

Robin Stradley waiting to eat in the cafeteria.

The English Department "helps" Patty Kinsler at registration.

Moving into the dorm is hectic ... a real hassle!
